

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

- Encourage your child to learn the rules and to play within them.
- Praise effort and performance more than the result.
- Discourage unfair play and arguing with officials.
- Look for aspects to praise in players who might not otherwise get attention.
- Never force your child to take part in Judo.
- Set good example by recognising fair play and applauding the good performance by all.
- Never punish or belittle a child for losing or making mistakes.
- Publicly accept officials' judgements.
- Support your child's involvement and help them enjoy their Judo.
- Use correct and proper language and behaviour at all times.
- Do not undermine the coaches during a training session by trying to coach your child while they are on the mat.
- Respect the Dojo at all times while demonstrations are taking place, please help your child learn and be quiet.
- Silence is required in the Dojo when bowing in and out is taking place on the mat at the beginning and end of each session, and when announcements are being made. Please ensure other children you are responsible for that may also be spectating are quiet during this time.
- Work together with the coaches whilst they look after your child and expect good behaviour. You are responsible for them when they are off the mat. At no time whilst off the mat should your child be messing around or congregating in other parts of the school.
